COUNTY OFFICIALS ARE GIVEN SHOCK Short Line Special Agent Wishes to Inter-

Expected Increase in Salary, but Must Continue at the Old Figure.

OGDEN, July 29 .- Weber county office holders who anticipated a substantial breaking into the first class by its recent $20,000,000 property valuation, were given a severe shock today when the county en a severe shock today when the county commissioners adopted an ordinance fixing the salaries at the same old mark. They even adopted a resolution continuing the consolidation of the offices of county clerk and cunty auditor at the same salary as before. It would have been possible under the new classification of the county to make two distinct offices for these duties, which are now combined and fall to the lot of County Clerk Samuel G. Dye.

It is within the power of the commissioners to increase the salary of every county officer, it being possible to compensate the sheriff to the extent of $3500 at the sheriff to the county treasurer, but instead of this the old salaries hold good as follows: Commissioners, $700; county clerk, $1800; county treasurer, $1800; county recorder, $1800; sheriff, $1800; attorney, $1500; assessor, $1500; surveyor, $1000.

LANDMARK BEING RAZED.

Old Home Torn Down; Aged Recluse Gives Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, July 29.-The old home Enoch Farr, one of the first residences built in Ogden, is being torn down today to make room for the erection of a cold storage plant. The pussing of this landmark, which stands at Twentieth street and Washington avenue, marks the destruction of the house which, for the past twenty-one years, has been the home of "Rattling Dick" Hull, who is now $2 years of age, and without living relatives. The old man at first threatened to resist with the force of firearms any attempt to take old man at first threatened to resist with the force of firearms any attempt to take away his home, but was finally persuaded that he would receive kind care and treatment at the county infirmary at Roy.
Mr. Hull says it was in this sucient house that he barbecued the first beef and mutton in Utah for a celebration which was held in honor of Brigham Young. According to some of the older inhabitants there are but one or two buildings now standing in Ogden which were erected before this house was built.

O'Nelli Construction Company Serves Notice on City Commissioners.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, July 29.—Notice was served on the city commissioners this evening by the J. P. O'Neill Construction company that, unless some effort is made at once to take up more than $10,000 worth of warrants held by the company, legal action may be taken to collect the amount. Some of the warrants should have been paid in 1907 and have been drawing 8 per cent interest since that time. The total amount, $10,558, is due to the O'Neill company for various improvements. The matter was referred to Mayor A. G. Fell, superintendent of finance.

view Suspects at Ogden. Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, July 29.-Following the celpt of a telegram from Special Agent Joe Jones of the Oregon Short Line, asking that the men be held until tomorrow. Tom Norman, Fred Sturgis and Peter Frazell, held on a charge of vagrancy, were returned to the city jail after they had been arraigned in Judge W. H. Reeder's court this morning. The men, who are said to be race horse followers, were arrested in this city Saturday while trying to make their way to Butte.

It is said that previous to the arrest here Officer Jones encountered four men in a box car at Sail Lake. One of the number pulled a gun on him and this one was placed under arrest. The men taken here are supposed to be the other three. Their case will receive the attention of the railroad authorities. Jones of the Oregon Short Line, asking
